

TIGERS GO TOMORROW FOR SOONER BATTLE

18 Men Will Be Selected After Tonight's Practice to Face Oklahoma.

ALUMNI TO ATTEND

Banquet Planned in Oklahoma City After Game—Opponents Praised.

Tonight's practice will decide just which Missouri football men will make the trip to the Oklahoma game, according to Prof. C. L. Brewer, director of athletics. About eighteen men will be taken. Those who show up best in the practice this evening, the last in Columbia before the game, will go.

The game will be played Saturday in Norman, Okla., the seat of the University of Oklahoma. The Tigers will leave Columbia tomorrow afternoon and will go direct to Oklahoma City, where they will put up both before and after the game.

Lunch before the game Saturday will be eaten in Oklahoma City, after which the players will go by trolley to Norman, seventeen miles away. The team will remain in Norman only long enough to play the game. Then they will ride back to the state capital.

Missouri alumni living in the southwest have arranged to meet in Oklahoma City the day of the game and travel with the Tigers to Norman. They will return in the evening and will have a banquet in Oklahoma City. President A. Ross Hill and other notables are on the speaking program. Professor Brewer wishes it understood that the Tigers will not be present at the banquet. "As soon as the Oklahoma game is over, we will begin to prepare for the Ames game," he said this morning.

The Tigers will reach Columbia again at 3:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The officials chosen for the Oklahoma game are: Referee, John C. Grover; umpire, E. C. Quigley, formerly of St. Mary's College, Kansas, and at present a National League baseball umpire, officiating in the Chicago city series between the Cubs and the White Sox; head linesman, Doctor Cloudman of Oklahoma City, a former Pennsylvania player.

Professor Brewer praises Oklahoma's record of the last three years. "During all that time," he said this morning, "Oklahoma has lost only one game on her home grounds. That one was to the Tigers in 1912, when we won by a score of 14 to 0."

"The Sooners have displayed wonderful football. They play a marvelous open game and have run up some high scores. Three of their four backfield men of last year are back in school and on the team. Only Courtwright is missing."

"Benny Owens, formerly a player at Kansas and at Michigan, still is coaching at Oklahoma. No, the Tigers have no hospital list—as yet."

Student Democrats to Organize.

A meeting for the organization of a University Democratic Club will be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

OLD JEWELS Can Be Beautifully Remounted

Jewelry-styles are changeable like fashions. The piece you so much admired several years ago when it was new, may not fit in with your ideas and costumes of today. Again, it may be some cherished heirloom you prize highly, but do not wear because of its obsolete mounting. Consult our experts about special designed or stock mountings of gold and platinum. If you want a special piece done to order—

We'll Help You Plan and Design It.

Expert advice and suggestions are yours for the asking. Jewelry examined or cleaned without charge.

ROWLAND CHARGES CAUSE HOT DEBATE IN COUNCIL

Shepard said the mayor was at loggerheads with the police.

"About what, expect the appointments?" asked the mayor.

"That's just it," Mr. Shaw went on, "and I am perfectly willing to leave it to these two men."

D. H. Rowland came from the crowd of twenty-five persons who had gathered in the council room to attend the meeting and said:

"If it is in order, I would like to say no one on the council is related to me except Mr. Whitesides."

W. H. Sapp of the law firm of Finley and Sapp followed Mr. Rowland to the front and asked the city clerk to enter Finley and Sapp as attorneys for Mr. Rowland. Mr. Sapp said:

"Mr. Shepard has either not read this ordinance or he has wilfully twisted the ordinance." Mr. Sapp then read extracts from the ordinance and ended by saying:

"We make the point that your order suspending Mr. Rowland is not legally drawn. It doesn't say the charges occurred within a year, nor during your term of office. We are ready to pass this up and are willing to go into the matter at any time."

Not Eager to Serve.

"I don't feel like serving on the committee," said Mr. McDonnell.

Mr. Quinn arose and said:

"I don't care what you, the people, or any other man says about it. I would be plain and impartial if it was my own brother. It gives me no pleasure, but as my duty, I'll do it, censor or no censor."

A chorus called for "question." All voted to appoint a committee composed of Mr. McDonnell and Mr. Quinn, except Mr. Shepard. Mr. Quinn then moved to adjourn. Said the mayor:

"If this thing is wrong then I will have Mr. Dinwiddie draw up the papers again and start all over. Mr. Dinwiddie drew up the papers."

Said Mr. Dinwiddie:

"As far as legality is concerned the council could put Mr. Rowland off on the police force by a straight vote. It seems to me the ordinance is the fairest way to do it."

E. G. Davis addressed the mayor.

Foresees a Long Contest.

"If I understand the ordinance it will be a long-drawn-out affair. Can't this council adopt its own mode of operation? We might pass another ordinance to do it by."

"Mr. Rowland authorizes me to state he will be ready to take it up day after tomorrow," said Mr. Sapp.

"I don't care," the mayor replied. "It won't take ten minutes."

"Mr. Rowland won't have anything to do with this until the evidence is placed before this body," Mr. Davis continued.

"I am the only witness," answered the mayor.

Mr. Shaw moved the council adjourn until Thursday. All the councilmen were present last night.

A store with a two-fold purpose to serve both men and women.

Women Men

The best dressed young women are heartily endorsing the "mannish" effects, so distinctly brought out in the fall and winter styles of wearing apparel.

The Americanette

—the popular coat in the Balmacaan, worn a great deal this fall. The cape effect of this gracefully made coat is especially attractive. Just the thing for the young girl. $10, $12.50 and up to $20.

Stylish Hats

The John B. Stetson company makes the latest head gear for the young woman. They are made especially for street wear. This hat is here in all shapes and colors brought out in the men's hats.

You will be pleased with the new Elveron—a smart English hat, in the popular shade of ivy. We have other colors too—browns, grays and blues.

$3.50 and $4.
—others at $2 and $2.50.

Mannish Sweaters

You should see the new Copenhagen Blue and the Harvard Jacket. There is nothing later on the market.

Fitform Stein-Bloch Society Brand Sophomore

These standard lines of clothing are recognized by the better dressed men everywhere as being the leaders in styles as well as service.

Suits of the latest models—close fitting coats, narrow shoulders, wide soft roll lapels, vests cut a trifle lower with the soft roll lapel also—These dressy clothes in Tartan Plaids and Fall Green—

$18 to $35
Other makes of clothing for less.

Overcoats

Double Breasted, as well as the Single Breasted Coats, are being worn this winter. Medium lengths, wide lapels, formfitting—embodying all the latest distinctive features.

The Balmacaan

This is the smart English Swagger Coat that is selling so well everywhere. It is cut full and roomy. They come in Tweeds and rough materials. The very thing for this cool weather.

Always look for the new things in our windows. There is something of interest to every buyer at this store.

Come in tomorrow and make your selection of winter wearing apparel.
